Dilger, Dolly and Drutz Join Oakland Family Services' Board of Directors

PONTIAC, MI – (July 2, 2008) Oakland Family Services is pleased to announce the appointment of three new board members to its Board of Directors: Patricia Dilger, Dr. Patricia Dolly and Marla Drutz.

Patricia ("Patty") Dilger is national sales director of Microsoft's U.S. Manufacturing Industry Unit. Dilger is responsible for the development of national sales strategy, solutions portfolio, and sell-to and sell-through initiatives for Microsoft's automotive and industrial equipment (AIE), high technology, and oil and gas industry verticals

Dr. Patricia Dolly is the president of Oakland Community College's Auburn Hills Campus, the largest of Oakland Community College's five campuses. Dr. Dolly also serves as a consultant/evaluator with the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Marla Drutz is director of programming and special projects for the E.W. Scripps Company. She is responsible for the programming purchases, productions and scheduling of five Scripps Television stations across the country, including WXYZ-TV. Ms. Drutz has received numerous professional awards, including Emmy Awards. Drutz was also selected by Crain's Detroit Business as one of Detroit's "Top 40 Under 40" and by Corp! Magazine as one of Michigan's Top Businesswomen.

"We are fortunate to have a diverse, highly skilled, committed and resourceful Board of Directors to drive our organization forward", says Michael Earl, president and CEO of Oakland Family Services. "Each of the three new Board members are exceptionally accomplished in their respective fields and bring added expertise to the organization. I am extremely pleased to welcome them to the Board".

Oakland Family Services is a private, nonprofit, human service agency providing prevention, education, support and treatment programs to families and individuals throughout Oakland County and Southeastern Michigan since 1921.
